Wantage Music Festival Association

President: Bob McLatchie

Vice President: Rosemary Lang

Welcome to the Wantage Music Festival 2019

The Festival is held in the Hall at Challow Park, which is on the A417 between Wantage and East Challow. This substantial space replaces the smaller octagonal Recital Hall that was the home for our Festival for several years. The Hall has a lovely, generous natural acoustic that adds a fine bloom to all forms of music making. The instruments available are two world class concert sized grand pianos (a 7ft 5in Fazioli F228 and a 6ft 7in Shigeru Kawai), and a large 4 manual digital organ by Veritas which emits a truly wondrous sound from its 32 channel audio system fitted behind an elegant pipe facade.

Parking is in the car park of King Alfred's School West site, which is on the opposite side of the road from Challow Park, and about 200 metres towards Wantage.

I do hope you enjoy taking part in this long-running Festival, now in its 42nd year. The Federation of Music Festivals aims to cultivate the joy of music-making, and Wantage Music Festival provides a friendly and supportive platform for musicians of all ages to share in the excitement and joy of making music. While there is a competitive element to most of the classes, our prime objective is to encourage performers to learn from one another as well as from expert adjudication.

Thanks to the generosity of local individuals and organisations, there are six prizes and cups to be won and information about these can be found on the next page.

Thank you for continuing to support Wantage Music Festival. Please enjoy the experience and spread the word.

PRIZES AND TROPHIES

The John Miller Prize: Sponsored by the Guild of King Alfred Players, this prize of £100 is awarded to a young singer competing in Recital Classes 83 - 86. The winner is chosen by the singing adjudicator.

The Wantage Town Shield: Donated by the Wantage Town Council, this is an annual trophy, awarded to a singer over 28 competing in the Festival vocal classes. The winner is chosen by the singing adjudicator.

The Opera Unmasked Prize: This prize of £100 is awarded to a singer, competing in Opera Class 60. The winner is chosen by the singing adjudicator.

The Ken Cooper Cup: During the Festival, each adjudicator will nominate exceptional instrumentalists over 18 for this award. Each nominee will perform their chosen piece during the Festival Finale. The winner of the cup will be chosen by a panel of adjudicators.

The John Durrant Prize: Sponsored by the Guild of King Alfred Players.

During the Festival, each adjudicator will nominate exceptional instrumentalists aged 18 and under for this award. Each nominee will perform their chosen piece during the Festival Finale. The winner of the £100 prize will be chosen by a panel of adjudicators.

The Challow Park Chamber Music Prize: Sponsored by the Challow Park Music trust this prize of £100 is awarded to a group competing in Chamber Music class 280.

All Prizes and Trophies will be presented at the Festival Finale to be held on Saturday July 6th in the Hall at Challow Park at 7.30pm, after the prize contest.

Festival Finale: All entrants are encouraged to be available to play in the Festival Finale. The organisers will attempt to put together a thoroughly enjoyable programme that will feature, though not exclusively, the winners of the various Festival Prizes.

Acknowledgements

The Festival organisers are grateful to all those that have funded or donated our prizes and trophies. This allows us to recognise outstanding performances. The prizes and trophies as above can be presented because of the generosity of The Guild of King Alfred Players (John Miller and John Durrant Prizes), Alan Cooper (Ken Cooper cup in memory of Alan's father), Opera Unmasked (the Opera Unmasked Prize), The Challow Park Music Trust, Wantage Town Council and the Vale of White Horse District Council.

Funding from other sources has allowed us to keep our entrance fees low, although we have had to make some changes to the fees this year.

We are also very grateful for Roger Middlebrook, whose firm Kutana has made a donation of the production costs of publicity posters and to 34SP who are providing web hosting, helping to raise the profile of the festival.

PRINCIPAL ADJUDICATORS

Ruth Gerald

Ruth was Head of Keyboard Studies at the Royal College of Music and previously Head of Keyboard at the Birmingham School of Music. Educated in Australia, she gained a Bachelor of Music degree from Adelaide University and continued with post-graduate studies at the Royal College of Music where she was a gold medallist. Her career has always pursued a very wide path, solo recitals, concertos, chamber music, accompanying, adjudicating, examining and teaching. Alongside her work as a British and International Federation of Festivals Adjudicator, she has given master-classes and seminars in UK and abroad and is actively involved in many aspects of the work of ABRSM

BRASS, STRING AND WOODWIND

Kay Tucker

Kay Tucker studied at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama.

Since 1998, Kay has been in popular demand as an Adjudicator throughout the UK.

‘Encouragement’ is a key word in all aspects of Kay’s work and she has great joy in working alongside musicians of all ages, particularly the very young.

Kay’s passion for teaching led her to develop an early years strings and general musicianship system known as ‘Stringbabies’. Since its inception in 2004, ‘Stringbabies’ has become well established and accepted as a leading approach in strings.

Over recent years, Kay worked as a consultant to Trinity Guildhall, selecting and co-selecting repertoire for graded exams and diplomas. Kay was a Trustee and member of the Executive council of the European String Teachers Association (ESTA) as well as chairman of Horsham Performers Platform.

Kay became an Adjudicator Member of the British and International Federation of Festivals in 1997 and undertook the Post-graduate Certificate in Adjudication in 1999/2000.

VOCAL (29TH JUNE)

Maria Jagusz

Maria Jagusz trained as a dancer before taking up a place at the Royal Northern College of Music where she was awarded the Ricordi Prize for Opera. Further scholarships enabled her to continue her studies at the National Opera Studio. As a singer Maria has worked as soloist for most of the leading opera companies in the U.K and Europe. Her roles include Carmen, Cherubino, Orlofsky, Hansel, Dorabella and Rosina. She has performed with many of the world’s leading singers including Domingo, Carreras, Freni and Dame Felicity Lott. She is a keen recitalist and a regular soloist for choral societies in the U.K.

As a teacher Maria has specialised in training students who are hoping to have professional careers in the world of opera and musical theatre. In order to give them the experience they need to succeed in this cutthroat industry she formed MJ-UK Music and Arts. As part of their training Maria believes that getting as much performing experience both in concert and on stage is vital for the development of young talent. She arranges many concerts both in the Cotswolds and in Cornwall where young singers can get the chance to perform in a safe welcoming environment.

Maria has worked for the education department for Longborough Festival Opera for the past ten years. She has just completed over thirty workshops introducing opera to schoolchildren.

She has been awarded honorary chairman of the Silurian Consort for her contribution to music in the Cotswolds.

VOCAL (SUN 30TH)

Sarah Jefferies

Sarah is a vocal graduate of the Royal Academy of Music, where she studied with Josephine Veasey and Patricia Clarke. Whilst at the Academy, Sarah was the recipient of many prizes including Early Music, Lieder and English Song. She was an active member of the opera course, singing roles by Britten, Strauss and Mozart. Upon leaving the Academy, Sarah studied with Margreet Honig at the Sweelinck Conservatorium in Amsterdam. She has sung recitals and oratorios all over the country and was a member of the Opera De Lyon. Sarah is a visiting teacher of voice at Marlborough College in Wiltshire and an adjudicator for the British and International Federation of Festivals.

Wantage Music Festival AGM

The Annual General Meeting of the Festival will be held on the 10th October 2019 in the Hall at Challow Park starting at 8pm.

You are warmly invited to attend and have your say on the way the Festival is run.

Festival Accompanist Paul Turner

The Festival is very grateful to the Official Accompanist for all his hard work in providing such a high standard of musicianship and support for our entrants. This year we have restructured the fees so that no extra fee is required for the use of the official accompanist. Sadly we cannot offer a discount to those who choose to bring their own. The official accompanist will not be available for piano or guitar classes.

Paul Turner specialises in chamber music, having worked with eminent musicians throughout his career. He enjoyed a prize-winning studentship, culminating in the Queen's Commendation for Excellence and the Peter Pears Accompaniment Prize, adjudicated by Pears himself. He studied with John Streets and Geoffrey Parsons, and is an elected Associate of the Royal Academy of Music (ARAM), a discretionary award given to past students in recognition of their contribution to the music profession. His early professional experience included working for organisations such as Live Music Now, the Young Concert Artists Trust and the Countess of Munster Recital Scheme.

A widely experienced recitalist, his work has taken him to Buenos Aires, Amsterdam, Stuttgart, Berlin, Valencia and Paris, as well as London's leading venues and UK Festivals. Renowned for his sensitive playing, he excels in a wide range of genres.

Please note that if you require the services of the Official Accompanist you must state your own choice music on the entry form and send in the music in advance (See Festival Rules and Regulations at the back of this syllabus).

You may request the services of an Official Accompanist in an Own Choice class only if you supply the title and composer details on your entry form. Please send a copy of the music you will be using to our Music Librarian: David Lynch, 50 Fyfield Close, Wantage OX12 8HN as soon as possible and, at the latest, by 10th May. Ensure your name & class number is on each copy.

- To help the accompanist, please write on the metronome mark at which you expect to perform the piece.
- To comply with the law on Public Performances where there is a paying audience, you must ensure that there are original parts of the music, or an appropriate authorised copy, available at the Festival session.
- If you would like a chance to practice with the official accompanist (at a charge) before the festival, this may be possible. The timing slip you will be sent once your entry is accepted has contact details. At the time of writing, he had availability during the week before the festival.

Wantage Music Festival Association, Challow Park, Challow Road, Wantage, OX12 9RH

CHAIRMAN: Graham Blyth SECRETARY: Emma Carter TREASURER: Gay Cooper

VENUE: The Hall at Challow Park, Challow Road, Wantage, Oxon DATES: 22nd June to 6th July 2019

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT:

The safety of children and members of other vulnerable groups is paramount and all, without exception, have the right to protection from abuse in any form, physical, psychological, sexual or neglect. All suspicions and allegations of abuse will be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately and all the charity's trustees, staff and volunteers have a responsibility to report concerns.

Throughout this Policy, where "children" are mentioned, this also includes members of other vulnerable groups and where the word "parent" or "parents" is used it includes guardians and carers.

PURPOSE AND FUNCTION OF ORGANISATION:

The objectives of the Wantage Music Festival Association are to advance, promote and encourage generally the study and practice of the art of music. In furtherance of these objectives, the Association organises an annual Music Festival, and occasional workshops, to which professional adjudicators and accompanists are invited providing a platform for amateur performance combined with an educational element.

THE FESTIVAL ENVIRONMENT:

The Festival is based in Challow Park, a private house with a purpose-built performance space. It is run entirely by volunteers. We admit members of the public to the reception and entrance areas and the performance hall. It is the policy of our Festival to inform and involve parents and teachers in partnership with the Festival organisers and helpers in order to ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable, a safe environment at our Festival. We do this by ensuring that you receive a copy of this policy at the time you are making arrangements to attend our Festival.

TO WHOM DOES THIS POLICY APPLY:

This policy relates to children under the age of 18 years and members of vulnerable groups of any age whose needs are identified to the organisers by parents and/or teachers prior to their arrival at the Festival. This should be done by contacting the address at the foot of this document. Our Festival actively seeks, wherever possible, to meet these needs, but must know beforehand in order to prepare support – or to let you know we are unable to help.

FESTIVAL PERSONNEL:

Wantage Music Festival is run entirely by volunteers. Members of the Committee and Official Festival Accompanists (referred to hereafter as Festival personnel) are recruited by recommendation from other committee members. There are short descriptions for all jobs of committee members and helpers, and these are reviewed in order to ascertain whether a disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service is required. Where Official Festival Accompanists rehearse at the Festival venue in the designated practice rooms, parents must satisfy themselves that their child or vulnerable adult will be accompanied by a responsible adult. All Festival personnel will sign in when in attendance at the Festival and records of their names, addresses and reference material where appropriate will held by the committee. All Festival personnel will be identified by clearly displayed badges stating their role at the Festival. Any person wearing a badge can be approached at any time with a problem and will be able to direct you via the Festival Reception Desk to the session's designated Committee member who will deal with it. Every problem will be taken seriously, documented and dated. A private area is available for such discussions.

PREPARATION FOR ATTENDANCE AT THE FESTIVAL:

A copy of this Policy is sent out with the timings sheets to the person who sent in the entry form. It is their responsibility to ensure that all parents are familiar with its contents. If an entry is made on behalf of an entrant under 18 years old or a vulnerable adult, the Festival rules require the person submitting that entry to sign a declaration that either they are the parent or that they will ensure that the policy will be distributed to the parents. Where we do not receive that declaration, entries cannot be accepted. A further copy will be displayed at the Festival Reception Desk during the Festival. Where parents are not personally attending with their charges, the Policy requires them to be satisfied that their charges will be accompanied to the Festival and adequately supervised by responsible adults acting on their behalf.

PERFORMANCE AREAS AND CHANGING AREAS:

Whilst the performance hall will be supervised by Festival personnel, public areas will not be supervised. These include toilets, refreshment areas and areas outside buildings as well as those parts of the venue buildings not in use by the Festival. Parents are responsible for ensuring their children or members of vulnerable groups are adequately supervised in areas not supervised by Festival personnel.

PHOTOGRAPHS, VIDEOTAPES and PRESS PHOTOGRAPHY:

All photography and video recording during adjudicated performances is prohibited. Where performers are photographed outside the performance hall, they should ensure that they have handed in their written Photo Permission Form at the Reception Desk (Permission Forms are available from the desk, or in advance of the festival through the web site). It is the parents' responsibility to ensure that any responsible adult attending with their charge(s) is aware that this form must be used at the Festival. Press are not allowed to take photographs during performances. Where parents do not wish their charge(s) to be included in a posed press photograph, it is the responsibility of the responsible adult attending with the charge(s) to ensure that they are not included.

THE LEGISLATION AND GUIDANCE THAT SUPPORTS THIS POLICY:

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974; The Children Act 1989; The Police Act 1997; The Data Protection Act 1998; The Human Rights Act 1998; The Protection of Children Act 1999; The Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000, The Children Act 2004, The Vulnerable Groups Act 2006.

POLICY REVIEW:

The organizers will regularly review their policy revising and enhancing it as necessary. In doing this they will look to The British & International Federation of Festivals for support and that body, in turn will look to other agencies for good practice, most notably the NSPCC and Arts Council of England policy guidelines.

Festival Safeguarding Officer David Lynch, 50 Fyfield Close, Wantage OX12 8HN

RULES & REGULATIONS

GENERAL

1. All enquiries must be made in writing to the Competitions Secretary c/o 38 Truelocks Way, Wantage OX12 7EF (please enclose a stamped, addressed envelope).
2. The decision of the Committee in all questions or disputes is final.
3. The prescribed editions of music and the key, where specified, must be used by all entrants. No pieces, other than those set, may be used except where specifically stated.
4. In all cases where (a) and (b) pieces are set, entrants must prepare both pieces.
5. The use of audio recorders, video recorders and cameras in the halls is not permitted. Photography is only allowed outside classes with the permission of the Committee.
6. The Committee reserves the right to appoint replacement/additional adjudicators and/or accompanists, and to alter, modify or cancel any arrangement detailed in the syllabus.
7. Please note that personal information such as names, contact details and age where relevant will be held in our computer records for the sole purposes of organising the Festival and communicating information about the Festival and its associated events. For further information please refer to our Privacy Policy, which is available on our website or from the Competitions Secretary (see rule 1).

ENTRIES

8. Entries must be received by the date given on the entry form. Entrants are strongly advised to send entry forms in good time as numbers in classes may need to be limited. In this event, entries will be accepted in date order of receipt of the official entry form or online entry.
9. The Committee is under no obligation to accept late entries.
10. Age must be reckoned as on the first day of the festival.
11. Cheques should be made payable to:
Wantage Music Festival Association.
12. No entry fee may be paid in stamps.
13. Fees for entries that have been accepted will not be refunded.
14. Fees for classes, are shown in the schedule of classes.
Other fees:

Festival Finale: £8.00
FREE admission to School Children, Performers and their accompanist for the relevant session.

OFFICIAL ACCOMPANIST

15. Entrants must supply music details on their entry form if an Official Accompanist is requested. Entrants may bring their own accompanist.
16. Entrants requiring an Official Accompanist should send clear photocopies of their Own Choice music to the Music Librarian: David Lynch, 50 Fyfield Close, Wantage OX12 8HN clearly stating name, class number and metronome marking. Music must be received by the Librarian no later than 10th May. After this date, music will only be accepted at the discretion of the accompanists.
17. If an Official Accompanist has been requested for an Own Choice entry but is subsequently not required, entrants should contact the accompanist direct, well in advance of the Festival.

18. It may be possible to arrange a rehearsal with the accompanist shortly before or during the Festival. Accompanists will charge for rehearsals.

OWN CHOICE MUSIC

19. Details of Own Choice music should be included on the Festival entry form. Failure to comply with this rule may lead to disqualification.
20. If Own Choice music is written to have an accompaniment, an accompanist must be used.
21. Copies of Own Choice music for the use of the Adjudicator must be brought to the Festival. Note that original or authorised copies of the music must be used for the performance; performers who do not supply original or authorised copies of the music for the performance will be disqualified.
22. Whilst every care will be taken to check entries, the Committee can accept no responsibility for ensuring that Own Choice music is appropriate to the class.
23. Any entrant who exceeds the time limit in an Own Choice piece may be asked to stop.

COMPETITIONS

24. Entrants should be present at least five minutes before the time marked on their timing form.
 25. Entrants not responding when called upon to perform may be disqualified.
 26. Adjudications will be given during each class, or group of classes if combined.
 27. The decision of the Adjudicator is final, and no-one may communicate with the Adjudicator during the Festival, other than through the scribe.
 28. When an Own Choice work is selected from a publication containing several different works and which is not published separately, one photocopy may be made for the use of an adjudicator at the Festival provided that the entrant has already purchased sufficient printed copies for the performance of the work and that the photocopy provided for the adjudicator is retained by the Festival and is destroyed immediately afterwards. Please note that this permission applies only to copyright holders who are members of The Music Publishers Association; it is the entrant's own responsibility to ensure that they have the right to copy any work which is published by a copyright holder who is not a member of the MPA. Photocopies for the adjudicator must be totally legible, or they may be refused.
 29. No responsibility for loss of music or instruments can be taken by the Committee.
 30. No adult classes will take place before 6.00pm on weekday sessions of the Festival without prior notification.
 31. Entrants are reminded that the use of make-up and costume in any item currently being professionally staged may constitute an infringement of the copyright laws.
- ## SAFEGUARDING
32. Whilst this Festival seeks to work in partnership with parents, carers, and teachers to ensure a safe environment as far as is reasonably practicable, as stated in the Festival's Safeguarding Policy, the responsibility for children under 18 rests with their parents, guardians or carers.
 33. An entry submitted on behalf of any child under 18 years old, or vulnerable adult, will not be accepted unless the appropriate declaration on the entry form has been ticked and signed.
